

University of Mississippi
eGrove

Correspondence: Anti-integration

James Meredith Collection

10-13-1962

Mrs. Reichert to Mr. Meredith (13 October 1962)

Mrs. (Unknown) Reichert

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_anti

Recommended Citation

Reichert, Mrs. (Unknown), "Mrs. Reichert to Mr. Meredith (13 October 1962)" (1962). Correspondence: Anti-integration. 243.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_anti/243

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James Meredith Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence: Anti-integration by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Oct. 13, '62

~~Uncompletd - no return add.~~
Dear Mr. Meredith,

I am sending you a tract which explains the way of salvation for I am sure you are not a born-again person. If you were you would not cause riots and bloodshed and cost our government a million dollars which we poor taxpayers have to pay.

The negroes who are born-again Christians are sweet and do not force themselves where they are not wanted. Jesus said "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth". This is Satan's world but some day Jesus will reign.

The fact that you left a college when you were almost ready to graduate, too, shows a lack of common sense which Christ can correct in you.
Mrs. Reichert